Item 1(A)

Applicant herewith submits a further copy of the new drawing (Figure 6). Figure 6 was submitted in response to an objection stating that the drawings lack a data in buffer, a data out buffer, a column decoder, and a row decoder for the memory device (i.e., DRAM). Applicant herewith proposes a new Figure 6 showing these features. These features are part of the memory device as set forth in the specification. No new matter is believed proposed. Entry of new Figure 6 is requested.

Item 1(B)

The Office Action states that applicant has neither disputed nor filed a terminal disclaimer to overcome the double patenting rejection. Applicant respectfully submits that this statement misstates the status of this rejection. Specifically, this rejection is a provisional
